GENERAL REPORT OF THE SCHOOL BOARD.

Our efforts during the past year to secure satisfactory teachers and maintain creditable schools, seem to have met with the general approval of our citizens.

Most of our teachers have worked faithfully and honestly, and some enthusiastically, for the progress of the pupils in their charge. Cases of marked failure on the part of teachers, or of serious complaint on the part of parents, have been very few.

Thirty weeks of school have been provided in every division where sufficient pupils could be gathered to make the work profitable. This, we believe, has never before been accomplished during the past history of this town.

Recent legislation by the state has made it possible for this town to secure expert supervision for its schools, at a very moderate cost, provided the coöperation of some adjoining towns can be secured. The question whether this town will make an effort to secure the advantages of this legislation will be presented for the consideration of the voters at our coming school meeting.

The teachers employed since August 1, 1899, and the localities of their schools, are as follows:

In regard to the matter of repairs to our schoolhouses, we would say that the North Contoocook house has been painted inside, and the plastering repaired. The house on the Jewett Road has received a new coat of shingles; the one at Emerson Hill has been painted both upon the inside and outside; and the house at Stumpfield has been painted upon the inside. The underpinning of the house at Clement's has been repaired in a substantial manner, and several other cases of needed repairs have received attention.

There are now three houses that will soon need reshingling,—one at Clement's Hill, one at West Hopkinton, and one on the South Road. The plastering in the house on the Jewett Road, and in the one at Clement's Hill, is in a very bad condition, and will either have to be entirely renewed or extensively repaired.

We suggest that, as usual, something be raised for special repairs for the coming year.

The patrons of our library may well feel grateful for the kindly interest of friends (residents and visitors), and the substantial expressions thereof in the shape of books, bookcase, heating apparatus, and needful articles for the use and enjoyment of all participants. A new bookcase and sixty-eight new books have been placed in the library rooms by the committee of the ladies "fair," and especially through the laborious yet willing efforts of Mrs. Judge Chase and Mrs. Herman W. Greene. Gifts of books were made by Rev. John S. Curtis, Mrs. Grace Osborne, Miss Anna Molineaux, Mrs. Ada Sprague, Mrs. Robert R. Kimball, Mrs. Arthur Goodspeed, and a sketch of the life of William A. Richardson from the estate of the late William A. Richardson. Through the efforts of Mrs. Henry Lyman, of New York city, we have been able to procure an efficient heating apparatus, which was much needed.

Now while it is often and perhaps truly said that "the hand that rocks the cradle rules the world," we desire to say right here, although there may be found some among the above-mentioned givers who are not on record as being quite up to the standard as cradle rockers, yet as willing workers for libraries they would make pretty lively competition.

The whole number of books taken out for the year to March 1, was 2,518. The number for each month as follows:

1899. March	293
April	254
May	203
June	181

Aug.	265
Sept.	187
